

Commendable Performance by the Students of Swami Sant Dass Public School, Phagwara in Indo-Pak Peace Calendar Painting Competition

Aghaz-e-Dosti- an Indo-Pak Friendship Initiative

Students of Swami Sant Dass Public School brought laurels to the school by bagging maximum prizes in 'Indo-Pak Peace Calendar Painting Competition' organized by Aghaz-e-Dosti in India- an Indo-Pak friendship initiative that primarily works for peace and education activities in schools and colleges to enable the future leaders to forge the path to a better world by engaging them with aspects of critical thinking, civic engagement, human rights and dialogue as solution.

A zoom meeting was conducted on 21st February, 2021 for the virtual launch of the 9th Indo-Pak Peace Calendar' to have discussion on 'Sharing of hopes for a peaceful co-existence' which was attended by the participants and the co-ordinator of the school along with the art teacher Mr. Jasvir Singh.

Mahip Singh Saini of 7th Blue, Sachneet Kaur of 10th Pink and Arshdeep Kaur of 8th Red are declared as winners and their paintings are included in the calendar. Sirjan Kaur of 8th Blue and Taranpreet Kaur of 10th Blue are declared as runners up in this competition.

Mrs. Anju Mehta (Principal) congratulated the art teacher, the students and their proud parents for their commendable achievement.